

THIS IS A RODEO BIBLE CAMP!

You can expect to get dirty.

You can expect to work hard and sweat.

You can expect to be in the proximity of livestock fecal material.

You may be asked to move outside of your comfort zone.

You need to be prepared to spend time outside.

You need to be prepared to sleep in a tent.

You need to be prepared to use an outhouse (porta potty).

You need to be prepared for limited hot water and/or imperfect daily showers.

All campers enrolled in a rodeo timed-event or in the horsemanship class will participate in a horsemanship proficiency demonstration for the instructors on the first day of their given camp. Based upon your prowess and ability to ride a horse, it may be recommended that you participate in an alternate event. The instructors' decisions will be final, and is based upon safety for participants and horses.

If you are enrolled for Bareback Riding, Saddle Bronc Riding, Bull/Steer Riding, or Steer Wrestling/Chute Dogging, you need to be prepared to interact with live animals. We will provide the livestock and necessary safety equipment...you must provide the mental and intestinal fortitude.

Every camper is required to attend all chapel services.

The registration deadline for the 2017 West River Rodeo Bible Camp is June 1.
